The characteristics of the above mentioned diamond have been established by scientific measures and observations including (but not limited to) 10x magnification, electronic carat balance, millimeter gauge, ultraviolet lamps and Sarine Diavision Technology.

This report expresses an opinion at the time of examination of the diamond and is not a guarantee, valuation or appraisal. Gerard McCabe is in no case responsible for the damages that may occur from any error or omission from the issuance or use of this report. The results of any examination may vary depending on changes and improvements in the techniques and equipment that may have occurred. These may enable the examiner to detect the use of processes for altering the characteristics of a diamond which were previously undetectable or alterations which become reversible even if the process remains undetectable.
